COLLABORATIVE GIVING

What if...

...women united to make the world better?

...we pooled our financial resources, ideas and energy?

The Jewish Women's Foundation of New Jersey (JWF) transforms the lives of individual women and girls through collective grantmaking. Through our giving, we invite you to be an agent of change.

Founded in 2007, JWF pools philanthropic dollars to fund innovative secular and Jewish programs, provide education on vital issues, and engage in advocacy efforts through a gender lens.

You too can affect meaningful change and transform lives.

We focus on areas most women can relate to – families, workplace concerns, self-esteem, education, domestic violence.

The concept is simple. JWF's policy is "one woman, one vote." Every member is an equal stakeholder in a transparent decision-making process. You too can affect meaningful change and transform lives.

WHAT WE DO

JWF of New Jersey invests in projects that protect and sustain women and girls and that help them reach their fullest potential.

Our goal is to maximize JWF's impact through:

- GRANTMAKING We assess nonprofit programs through a gender lens. JWF members participate in all stages of grantmaking from visiting applicants to evaluating success.
- EDUCATION We design programs that inform and empower JWF members and community leaders.
- ADVOCACY We engage with the community and grantees on issues affecting women and girls and advocate for change.

Grantmaking, education & advocacy through a gender lens.

We also undertake special initiatives such as:

- Human Trafficking: Founding member of the N.J. Coalition Against Human Trafficking
- N.J.'s Female Veterans: Sponsor of roundtables focusing on programs for transitioning women veterans

JWF provides grants to local, regional, national, Israeli, and global organizations; they need not be Jewish organizations to receive funds.
